Motion by Gahring, seconded by Pope to approve Resolution 2018-3-2A regarding firearms ban as follows:

Resolution No. 2018-3-2A

Resolution banning firearms in court occupied space within the Iowa County Court House

Whereas, the 6th Judicial District of Iowa, for which Iowa County District Court is a part, has requested firearms be banned from the court occupied spaces within the Iowa County Court House.

Whereas, the court occupies the top floor, also referred to as the second (2nd) floor, of the Iowa County Court House and its common areas are not shared with other offices.

Whereas, such a request does not impact the operation of other duly elected county officials and their policies.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Iowa County Board of Supervisors hereby ban firearms within the court occupied spaces, consisting of the top floor of the Iowa County Court House, also referred to as the second (2nd) floor. No person(s) shall carry a firearm into this space, with exception of non-litigant law enforcement personnel. Persons violating this resolution will be instructed to leave the court space or risk arrest for trespass as defined under Iowa Code section 716.7.

All aye, motion carried.
